Hilary Term 2025

edmund.kelly@politics.ox.ac.uk

Welcome to Comparative Government. This course covers several important topics related to comparative politics, focussing particularly on institutions.

There is also a strong link with the Q-Step 2 course, and I highly recommend that you take Q-Step 2 alongside this course.

I will assign you one essay question each week. Please email your essay to me by 5pm on Wednesdays. I may not be able to mark late essays.

Please read all the required readings each week, and as much as you can from the other readings. I do not expect you to read everything each week! You can catch up on the remaining readings over the vacation.

Tutorials will be on Fridays, from 3.30pm-4.30pm, in Room 132 of the Manor Road Building. Tutorials will be held in weeks 2-8 i.e., there will not be a tutorial in week 1.

Collections will be in Week 0 of Trinity Term. You will be asked to write 3 essays in 3 hours, from a choice of 12 questions. This mirrors the structure of the final exam.

Essay criteria.

1. Maximum 1600 words, excluding bibliography.
2. Sensible font and font size.
3. Double spaced.
4. Proper referencing and full bibliography (in any sensible, consistent format).

In the departmental reading list on Canvas there is a very useful guide to good essay writing in Comparative Government. I recommend you read it before writing your first essay.
